Soft and pure—the comfort of a life in balance.

CondeHouse presents its “Keshizumi Grey” collection.

A traditional Japanese color long cherished through the ages,

“Keshizumi-color” (Keshizumi grey) inspires this finish—

a beautifully deep tone that brings the texture of Japanese Elm to life.

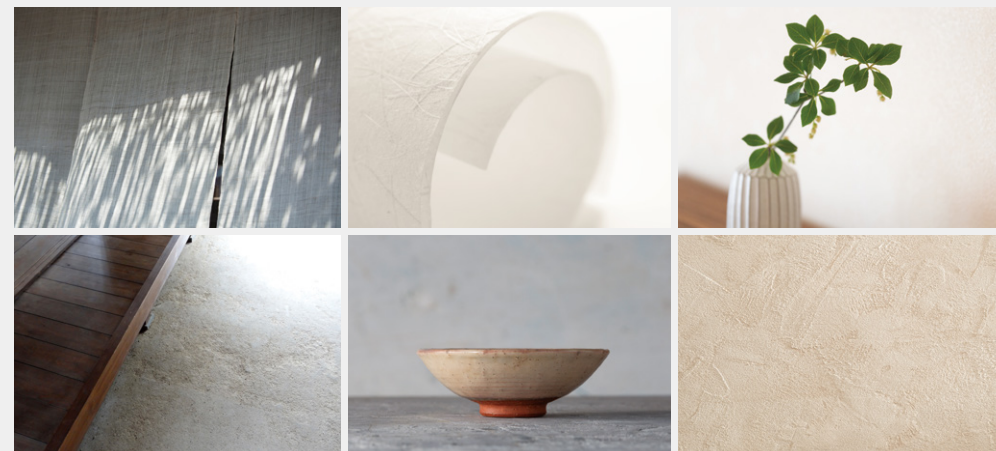

“Kasumi White” (mist) gives form to the gentle flow of time, born from the harmony of a hue evoking softly drifting morning haze and the texture unique to Japanese Elm.

Its refined tone brings a quiet resonance to the space.

Keshizumi

- Select Items -

CondeHouse's "Keshizumi Gray" is a deep, evocative color that suggests the stillness left after a charcoal fire has died—a color carrying the spirit of wabi-sabi. Under different light it reveals a range of shades and gradations, showing a richly nuanced character. Restrained yet possessed of a sure presence, its refined beauty—which lets the wood grain speak—lends a quiet composure to a space, bringing deep ease and harmony to daily life. Its substantial poise heightens the texture of natural materials, shaping a monotone-unified style that conveys “the beauty of silence.”

Kasumi

- Select Items -

CondeHouse's "Kasumi White" is a soft, pale grayish white that captures the atmosphere of early spring. Set against the dreamlike scenes long sung of in classical Japanese poetry, it wears a transparent, refined presence. A soft modesty and quiet intertwine with the texture of the wood. Understated intellect and the Japanese aesthetic give rise to a comfort that breathes with open space. Settling gently into a bright greige-toned interior, it brings about a refined, gracious style in quiet harmony with quality.

“Keshizumi Grey / Kasumi White” is distinguished by the beauty that emerges when Japanese Elm is used.

We have selected items recommended for interior spaces that express the Japanese aesthetic.
