

Midori Mitsui / Japan

Outline

This product was born through struggles to satisfy various requirements for chairs, such as comfort, beauty, lightness, and strength, based on the ideas of the designer Midori Mitsui from a user’s standpoint. This series also has been used in many places such as stores and welfare facilities. The design feature of latticework was born from the idea to bring the natural light and smell of each season into the room.

Grain

- Random match
- Wood planks or veneer sheets are joined at random, of which expressive surface patterns require craftspeople for high skills and an eye for beauty.
- Book match
- Two pieces of wood planks or veneer sheets with similar surface patterns are arranged side by side to look like a book opened, which makes surface patterns look more dynamic by grains running symmetrically.
