Outline

The NAKKA series was designed by designer Yasushi Fujimori for the Nakanoshima Art Museum, Osaka, which opened in 2022. The series is centered around the iconic bench, ranging over sofas and easy chairs. The letter “N” for Nakanoshima that appears on each item serves as the design motif for the series. The soft texture expressed in the wooden line leaves a lasting impression even at first glance from a distance.

Grain

Random match
Wood planks or veneer sheets are joined at random, of which expressive surface patterns require craftspeople for high skills and an eye for beauty.

Book match
Two pieces of wood planks or veneer sheets with similar surface patterns are arranged side by side to look like a book opened, which makes surface patterns look more dynamic by grains running symmetrically.
